Dear David –

DESC has three witnesses to present to the Commission, and we intend to ask for approval to present the Company's witnesses in-person and as a single panel. One of DESC's witnesses will be traveling from out-of-town, and subject to being excused by the Chairman after testifying, plans to travel back home on Monday evening. Subject to the other parties' plans for cross-examination, DESC believes this hearing can conclude on Monday and certainly, no later than Tuesday, May 3 at 1:30 p.m.

If you have any questions or concerns, please advise.

Chad

Parties:

Regarding the scheduled hearing in Docket No. 2021-361-G, we currently have scheduled May 2-6, 2022 – the entire week has been held for the hearing on the Commission calendar. However, I want to advise the parties that the Commission is contemplating a 1:30 p.m. adjournment on Tuesday, May 3.

I would ask that the parties let me know if there are any witness availability concerns that the Commission needs to be aware of as we move forward with the scheduled hearing. If there is not, I would appreciate if the parties presenting witnesses would confirm as much.

Your cooperation is, as always, appreciated.

Regards,

David Stark
